Jean

Kelly Jones

Jean take me down just take me to your place
And do what you do to me
Take me to the place you wanna go
Now that you've been thereI've seen it, I've been it, I mean it
I don't know where you're goingLong lost in your mind it's up to you
Do what you do to you
You don't know what's right or in your mind
But now it's timeTo find a reason to be here
And work out the reasons 'fore you diePick yourself up now and walk the road
You don't know where you're supposed to go
But now it's time to take a look
I know you don't know if youMean it, or seen it, or feel it
The reasons in your mind, that's in your mindPick yourself up off the dirty floor
You've got to be there, don't you know?
Now is your time to open up
And then you seen me downI'll be there, I'll see ya
And now you got to open up your eyes, open your eyes
Now you got a reason to be here
And see that reason 'fore you dieJean take me down just take me to your place
And do what you do to me
Take me to the place you wanna go
Now that you've been thereI've seen it, I've been it, I mean it
I don't know where you're goingPick yourself up now and walk the road
You don't know where you're supposed to go
But now it's time you take a look
I know you don't know if youMean it, or seen it, or feel it
The reasons in your mind, what's in your mind?Pick yourself up off the dirty floor
You've got to be there, don't you know?
Now is your time to open up
And yes, you seen me downI been there, I seen ya
And now you gotta open up your eyes, open your eyes
Now you got a reason to be here
And see that the reason 'fore you die, before you dieNow you got a reason to be here
And see it before you even die
Before you die, before you die
Before you die
