

Eyes Waterfalling

Level 42

Let me out to play
Let me find a way to be
Let me feel the sun
Life has just begun for meEyes waterfalling, a world full of tears
Eyes waterfalling, but nobody hearsLaughter all around
It's lonely looking down from here
Fuel my shallow pride
And teach me how to hide my fearEyes waterfalling, a world full of tears
Eyes waterfalling, but nobody hearsThey've got control of my life
I can't break away
They've shaped my destiny
No use the boy in meI go to join my friend
He'll bring me joy againEyes waterfalling, a world full of tears
Eyes waterfalling, but nobody hearsI lost control in the night
And drifted awayEyes waterfalling, a world full of tears
Eyes waterfalling, but nobody hears
