Tokyo

Danny Saucedo

Warm and cold, you grab me down
You lift me with your magic, new and old
I know your way but I don't understand it
Steel and stone, a thousand years of history and futureKodachrome
Are lazy beam's creating this illusion
I can leave any day
But you're always gonna stay on my mindTokyo, you've got the rhythm in you
High and low, she's gonna do it to you
Tokyo, you've got the rhythm in you
High and low, she's gonna do it to youSleepless nights, my eyes are open
But I must be dreaming, you and I
We play it cool but underneath we're steaming
You can run you can hide
But this roller-coaster ride never stopsTokyo, you've got the rhythm in you
High and low, she's gonna do it to you
Tokyo, you've got the rhythm in you
High and low, she's gonna do it to you
She's gonna do it to you, she's gonna do it to youOhh, I can leave any day
But you're always gonna stay on my mind
And you can run you can hide
But this roller-coaster ride never stopsTokyo, you've got the rhythm in you
High and low, she's gonna do it to you
Tokyo, you've got the rhythm in you
High and low, she's gonna do it to youTokyo, you've got the rhythm in you
High and low, she's gonna do it to you
Tokyo, you've got the rhythm in you
High and low, she's gonna do it to you
