Hurt

Kalapana

Oh, you say you're mine
And i believe you every single time even though my friends say you're not my kind
I just can't believe you'd be lying
All my friends are laughing
Seen you out with other men I'm dying can't you see it in my eyes I'm crying
I just can't believe you're not mine

*Chorus:
Would you hurt the man who loves you
Would you hurt the man today
Would you take the love you gave me away*

Oh, what have i done
All the time i guessed it was just fun
I gave away the sweetest girl i knew
Oh, just for you

Repeat Chorus

Bridge:
Oh, i know i'll never, never, never know the truth
Oh, i love you too much girl to spoil you're fun
I can't run, no, no, no i can't run

I guess i had it coming
I fooled around before when i was tied
And now my freedom stings i could hide
But id still be a fool all my life

Chorus*
