Fortune Teller

Xavier Rudd

Well I see, because this is my window
Your questions, with every move I make
So much time, I filled up with answers
To why my feet, will always hold their groundNeed to be the one
Redefine yourself
See it in your mind
This is all a game
Do it all again
Redefine yourself
See it in your mind
This is all a gameThis is my fortuneWell I see, the sun in my window
That questions will remainThis is my fortune
