

Mare Imbrium

Galactic Pegasus

Weâ€™re sick forever

Weâ€™re dead

I have become a part of the arc
I am the shiniest star of freedom
The words lay on the tip of my tongue
They converge into one Idea
But Iâ€™m afraid I havenâ€™t been so honest
In my planning to fly far from this nest

I have been on the rise of dispelling the lies
Lift me up high enough while youâ€™re down in the fire
Lay me down
Fire, lay me down

Iâ€™ve been locked up inside
Talkinâ€™ about the right way to be inside of the fucking fire
Lay me down
Fire, lay me down

Stuck in this arch!
I got the right wings to fly
But they tear me apart
I am unsure that I will ever regress
It doesn't get any better than fire
Lay me down
Fire, Lay me down
