

Give Love (feat. LunchMoney Lewis)

Andy Grammer

My, my, my mother was a sunshine soldier
Every day was a dream come true
She said that we were blessed by the breath deep inside us
She could make the colors in the sky turn blue
She said: "Honey, what you gonna do today?
You're second guessing every single move you make"
You're definitely gonna have some very hard days
But I'll be right here for you"
And she said: "Before I go
There is one thing you should know"
I give love to all of my people
All of my people need love, I give some
I give love to all of my people
All of my people need love, I give some
I give love to all of my people
All of my people need love, I give some
'Cause in the end, the love we take's
Got nothing on the love we make
So give love
So give love
So give love
She, she said, "You're gonna be a light in a cold world
You got extra love pumping up your veins"
To my people feeling down and my people feeling empty
I got so much of this love, I gotta give it away
Hey, honey, what you gonna do today?
You're second guessing every single move you make"
You're definitely gonna have some very hard days
But I'll be right here for you"
And she said: "Before I go
There is one thing you should know"
I give love to all of my people
All of my people need love, I give some
I give love to all of my people
All of my people need love, I give some
I give love to all of my people
All of my people need love, I give some
'Cause in the end, the love we take's
Got nothing on the love we make
So give love (Yuh)

So give love (Andy, you know I got you!)
So give love (Yeah, yeah)"Put this on repeat, this song elementary
This that "1 + 1 is 2, you sprinkle love, that equal 3"
Maybe that's the remedy, blind man, he can't even see
If you wanna cook it up, well, then I know a recipe
It's that L-O-V-E, (I) know you see me (ride)
Down the avenue, them haters throwing that peace (sign)
Demo on replay, you know I don't even try
Yeah I give that love, I give that love, I know the reason why I give love to all of my people
All of my people need love, I give some
I give love to all of my people
All of my people need love, I give some
I give love to all of my people
All of my people need love, I give some
'Cause in the end, the love we take's
Got nothing on the love we make
So give love
So give love
So give love
