

Teenage Sensation

Gus Gus

Feel my heart slamming against my ribs
The smell of your body and the touch of your lips
You are beyond all imagination
You are beyond all imaginationGee, I love you so much
I can look and I can touch
I can touchMy teenage sensation
My teenage sensationYour skin must be from another world
My limbs are numbed with your pleasure dome
For the first time, a revelation
Beyond all imaginationGee, I love you so much
I can look and I can touch
I can touchMy teenage sensationAnd I think maybe, it's wrong
(Teenage sensation)
How young is too young
(Teenage sensation)
How young is too young
(Teenage sensation)My teenage sensation
My teenage sensation
My teenage sensation
