

Ha Ha

G.B.H.

I Dont wear a tie dont ask me why i feel uncomfortable in one and i wont wear a suit cause it might take root and i end up towing one of your lines You laugh at me because im different i laugh at you your all the same you'll find it really hard to laugh now with one of my bullets in your brain HA HAI aint bothering you why you messing with me im just trying to do my own thing You dont know my story who made you judge and jury stay with rules to which you cling Free thinkers open minds the opposite of your kind you hate everyone to the core You got a cruel vent savage amusement knuckles dragging along the floor
