New Day

Tamar

Verse1:
before the light had found the dark before tonight had fell apart frozen up i realized somethings gotta' change it took a crash to understand time kept slipping through my hands i never used to know the sun will shine now turn to rain
*CHORUS:
say goodbye say goodbye to the way i was before say hello say hello to a new way i was lost but i found what i was looking for wakin' up wakin' up to a new day into a new day
Verse2:
i was sleeping in a twisted dream dying just to make believe a pretty situation was far from where i was but im not up for giving up lying down and out of luck.

but my mistakes are now in the open and now im finally coming clean
say goodbye say goodbye to the way i was before
i was lost but i found what i was looking for
breakdown:
cause' everything everything ends at the start (ends at the start)
healing and feeling all of my scars (yeah)
i was lost but i found what i was looking for
to a new day, to a new day

i was lost but i found what i was looking for
