Friend or Foe

Adam and the Ants

Friend or foe
Friend or foe
Friend or foe
Friend or foeI want those who get to know me
To become admirers or my enemies
I want those who get to know me
To become admirers or my enemiesI want those who get to know me
To become admirers or my enemies
I want those who get to know me
To become admirers or my enemiesTake it up or leave it, I'm not gonna change a bit
If it means heartache then leave it out for your sake
I tried and I try tried to take care of my insides
Nobody's perfect so leave me if you objectI want those who get to know me
To become admirers or my enemies
I want those who get to know me
To become admirers or my enemiesI want those who get to know me
To become admirers or my enemies
I want those who get to know me
To become admirersWhen you're a pirouetting, high kicking, thigh slapping cruiser
When you're a hip grinding, spell binding, clean cut seducer
You have to be careful, so people take note
I take it serious but I still like a jokeI want those who get to know me
To become admirers or my enemies
I want those who get to know me
To become admirers or my enemiesI want those who get to know me
To become admirers or my enemies
I want those who get to know me
To become admirersTake it up or leave it, I'm not gonna change a bit
If it means heartache then leave it out for your sake
I tried and I try, tried but still you say that I lied
Nobody's perfect so leave me if you objectTake it up or leave it, I'm not gonna change a bit
If it means heartache then leave it out for your sake
I tried and I try, tried to take care of my insides
Nobody's perfect so leave me if you object
