Heal

Kerli

I looked at you and all I saw was colors, oh so beautiful
From blue to green for rainy days and pinks and reds for being okay
They made you, you so incomplete, so naked, small but oh so sweet
See where it's going, can I be knowing
That you will not be here, it's all become so clear
And I'll keep walking, I'll keep on wondering
If what we have was real if I will ever heal
Heal, heal, heal, heal, heal, heal
I looked at you and all I saw was colors, oh so beautiful
From blue to green for rainy days and pinks and reds for being okay
They make you, you so incomplete, so naked, small but oh so sweet
It made you, you, it made you, you
It made you, you, it made you, you, ooh
It made you, you, it made you, you
It made you, you, it made you, you, you, you
It made you, you, it made you, you
It made you, you
Each day, each day, day, day, day
