Ladders

Leona Lewis

OhDown here in the trenches
I know what I'm fighting for
Come back to my senses
I'm ready for something moreI can face all of my mistakes
I'll be brave, hmm
It's okay, finally
I'm awake, I'm awayI fall back down but I'm looking up
Each heart breaks end up the ladder
You're there to lift me up, lift me up
Higher
Higher
Oh ohNo glory in silence
I'm trying to live out loud
Rise up though I'm crying, hmm
I'm free, let the fear run outI can face all of my mistakes
I'll be brave, oh
It's okay, finally I'm awake
I'm awayI fall back down but I'm looking up
Each heart breaks end up the ladder
You're there to lift me up, lift me up
HigherI fall back down but I'm looking up
Each heart breaks end up the ladder
You're there to lift me up, lift me up
Higher
Higher
Higher oh ohWherever you take me
You will not beat me
Finally I'm where I belong
Wherever you take me
You elevate me
Finally I am not aloneMmm hmm hmmYou're there to lift me up, lift me up
HigherI fall back down but I'm looking up
Each heart breaks end up the ladder
You're there to lift me up, lift me up
Higher
Higher
HigherOh
You're lifting me up
Higher

So high, so high
