

The Sun Won't Set (feat. Norah Jones)

Anoushka Shankar

the sun wont set
not now not yet(2)
I wonder how it felt beneath the early sun each sunset keeps me still the tree has shed its lills the wind the evnin chill, its hardest to receive
the sun wont set
not now not yet
the sun wont set
not now not yet
The sun below the trees, startin to get cold holding now through change, the day grows old I missed the mornin heat, fall upon my face I wish I knew you then, its always sunset in this place.
the sun wont set
not now not yet
the sun wont set (Sitar solo)
not now not yet the sun wont set
not now not yet
the sun wont set
not now not yet
