

Day One

Chely Wright

I woke up this mornin', put the coffee on
Opened up the blinds and there was the sun
Now, this ain't just another day
It's the hardest one I've ever faced But minute by minute, tear by tear
If I can hang on and just be strong tomorrow will be here
The hurtin' won't end, it's only just begun
But I'll get over you, if I can make it through day one I'll jump head-first into my work
If I stay busy, maybe it won't hurt
Anything to forget you're gone
And keep the time from draggin' on Minute by minute, and tear by tear
If I can hang on and just be strong tomorrow will be here
The hurtin' won't end, it's only just begun
But I'll get over you, if I can make it through day one Someday I'll look back on it all
And thank God my heart survived the fall Minute by minute, I'll keep hangin' on
But I'll get over you, if I can make it through day one
Yeah, I'll get over you, if I can make it through day one
