Don't Let Your Feet Touch Ground

Ash Koley

Standing up straight I'm ten feet tall
I like this look I love you all
A hundred feet off the ground it seems
That a beautiful day is gracing meDon't let your feet touch ground
And don't look Down
Oh, Oh
Don't let your feet touch ground
And don't look Down
Oh, OhI pull my boots up to my knees
No coats or hats, thank you please
I dig up dirt and I find no wrong
All while singing a silly songDon't let your feet touch ground
And don't look Down
Oh, Oh
Don't let your feet touch ground
And don't look Down
Oh, OhThere are no mistakes
Up in our secret place
We're not just getting by
Everything is fineDon't let your feet touch ground
And don't look Down
Oh, Oh
Don't let your feet touch ground
And don't look Down
Oh, Oh
