Let's Eat Home

Rosemary Clooney

I like to stroll on the Costa Dell Soul at sunrise
And to me Waikiki is the place to be speakin' fun wise
I like to dine in the foreign time palatso
You can laugh and call me fatso, that's okay by meI like to stick with the first class ticket buyers
Setting trends with my trend setting friends
The frequent fliersI like to shop on the Champs De Elesee
Eat curry in old Bombay
And spend New Years eve in either Tel Aviv or RomeBut if it's all the same to you
Let's eat homeI like to lunch with the bunch in old Savanna
I know a swell motel North of Callispell Montana
I like to eat in my suite at the Savoy Plaza
And I know a bar in Ghaza, where they serve goblet teaI jump a jet, just to ensemble one set in Rio
To say Hi, how's the folks?
May be swap a few jokes with the trioAnd then it's off to my condo in Spain
Hang glide off the coast of Maine
And spend Labour Day in either Montreal or RomeBut if it's all the same to you
Let's eat home
