Back to Life

Hudson Henry

All the scars and all the pain
All the anger slowly fades
It all seems so petty now
I'm here and I've change
I'm not so afraid
Of what claims to be my fateWhen you're pushing so hard
Accidents strike
You can never give up
Or you'll lose your lightI feel it
Inside me
My heartbeat
my breathing
It keeps me believing
I've come back to life
This darkness
Surrounds me
There's freedom
Within reach
I know that I've
Come back to lifeNo regrets no apologies
I won't give up for the life of me
It all seems so easy now
On the fringe of reality
While holding on to my dreams
I'll just chase my destinyI Won't let this candle
Shine a brief light
I feel my heart beating
I'll pull through tonightI feel it
Inside me
My heartbeat
My breathing
It keeps me believing
I've come back to life
This darkness
Surrounds me
There's freedom
Within reach
I know that I've
Come back to life
