

Colors

Morandi

beautiful sunrise in your eyes, burning like a flame beautiful colors inside me calling out your name

I can't explain the shivers I get when you call my name painting rainbows on my soul (chorus (twice)) beautiful colors in your.....
she has blown me away like an ocean storm and she moved her lips to say: "don't be afraid" here I am, lost in your eyes to be found again cause you've changed my life today (chorus (twice)) beautiful colors in your.... (chorus (twice))
