

Sweet Love

Fortunate Youth

Yes indeed he's a grateful man to have all the love wrapped up in his hand
yes indeed, he's a grateful man to understand, to love to love to love you see he love you so much here said a time ago
he's a lucky man cause he loves you so But Now you're gone like the sun in the sky some things oh i ask why?

(Chorus)

Sweet Love, Sweet Love
I cannot get enough of your Love

I tell you girl yes i gonna be The Only one you're gonna wanna see
And Cant you see that this love is true
Its got me standing here right next to you, ya
And when you're gone i know its wrong and i can tell it all along I know that you belong right inside this song
And every time we touch, I'm glad that its just us Cause I Love you very much and i cannot get enough of your love

Chorus x 4

If i was lost, lost and never found I'd be closing by eyes so tounge bound To see a vision of you Alone in my dreams
If i close my eyes, I can barely see But now i smell you in a distant wind i can smell your perfume oh i think I'm falling in The i open my eyes yes my heart it falls Cause i don't see you, no not at all Said now, oh now baby girl now baby tell me so Why is Love so hard? So Hard.
Oh now baby girl now baby tell me so Why does love always see these scars?
Oh now baby won't you tell me so

Oh but if you go and leave, if you go and leave I'll be standing watching Love walking Away

Chorus x4
