

It's Just Because

Gerry & The Pacemakers

Do you ever stop and think why I love you?
Do you ever stop and think why I dream of you?
It's just because, it's just because
It's just because our love is true

Do you ever stop and think what makes me feel this way?
Do you ever stop and think why I love you more each day?
It's just because, it's just because
It's just because our love is true

When I'm with you, the things we do
Mean so very much to me

Do you ever stop and think when our love will end
Is it just a passing phase? No, it will never end
It's just because, it's just because
It's just because our love is true

It's just because, it's just because
It's just because our love is true

When I'm with you, the things we do
Mean so very much to me

Do you ever stop and think when our love will end
Is it just a passing phase? No, it will never end
It's just because, it's just because
It's just because our love is true

It's just because our love is true
