

Little Good-Byes

SHeDAISY

I'm gonna tell you something you don't want to hear
You never listen when I talk, maybe you'll listen when I walk
So I made up my mind and made a sandwich
And I, I didn't shed a tear, I gave you one last minute of my time
In this mess I left behind You'll come home tonight
And turn on the light
Don't you be surprised to find
My little goodbyes Empty hangers by the closet door
Lipstick tube on the bathroom floor
Unpaid bills by the kitchen phone
I took the Beatles, left Billy Joel
My little goodbyes
Little good, little goodbyes I'm sure you're sure I'll be back in just an hour or two You'll tape a hallmark to my door, they always said it better than you
And if you're wonderin' when you're gonna hear from me
Well take a real good look around boy and it won't be hard to see You come home tonight
And turn on the light
Don't you be surprised to find
My little goodbyes Took your favorite Dodgers hat
Left the litter, but I took the cat
Loaded up the TV in the back of my car
Have fun watching the V.C.R.
My little goodbyes
Oh baby, little good, little goodbyes So cry to your mom
And your sympathetic friends
And tell them, tell them how the story ends Took the hourglass left the sand
Now you got time on your hands
Took the statue from Japan
Funny little Buddha man Change my voice on the machine
Or there'll be little goodbyes with every ring
Left the pictures took the frames
Got the umbrella, here comes the rain Yeah, yeah, yeah
Rain, yeah, yeah, yeah
Hey, yeah, yeah, yeah
Hey, yeah, yeah, yeah
Little goodbyes
