

White Lies

Mr Hudson

Lying I still cant find the truth.
So I spin another line on you
You cant blame a fella for trying
Im hoping you eat my every word
Doesnt it taste so good?
But deep inside Im dying Oh! I wanna word with you
If theres never a perfect time
Its time for another white lie White lies just another white lie
I did it to get close to you
And I will tell a million more
White lies just another white lie
I do it to get close to you
And I will tell a million more white lies One day I know youll understand
That I didnt really have much choice
I just had to hide it
Sometimes good men do bad things
Just as bad men can do good
Tell me which way you like it Oh! I wanna word with you
Theres never a perfect time
However much I try
Oh! Why dont you sit yourself down?
Cos we gotta talk this through
Its time for another white lie White lies just a little white lie
I did it to get close to you
And I will tell a million more
White lies just a little white lie
I do it to get close to you
And I will tell a million more white lies Oh-oh oh-oh
I was just playing girl I was just playing by your rules
Oh-oh oh-oh
Just another white lie and Ill tell a million more
White lies
