

Just Missed The Train

Trine Rein

Roll over baby
The time has come
To make a little bit more room
I've hung around you
It's getting tough
I think I'm gonna brake down soon

Oh, I remember
Crying in the park
It was getting dark
Suddenly I looked up
You were my sky

So sleep darling
Why don't you pretend we were just a dream
It's cool baby
It doesn't matter anyway
I'm so sorry
We got to the station a little too late
Such a shame
We just missed the train

Be quiet angel
Don't make a sound
Save it for a rainy day
Oh, can't you see me
Through the clouds
Trying hard to find my way

Do you remember
Drinking all that wine
We were feeling fine
Couldn't walk a line
We were alright

So sleep darling
Why don't you pretend we were just a dream
It's cool baby
It doesn't matter anyway
I'm so sorry

We got to the station a little too late
Such a shame
We just missed the train
Oh why'd that train just pass us by
Didn't anyone see we were stuck at the light
Or we could've made it on time

So sleep darling
Why don't you pretend we were just a dream
It's cool baby
It doesn't matter anyway
I'm so sorry
We got to the station a little too late
Such a shame
We just missed the train
