

I'll Never Marry You

De Staat

Love, I'll never marry you
Because you don't ever tell the truth
Love, you come and then you go
Love, I'll need a little more
Love, I see no heart in you
You, you play me for a fool
Love, you come and tie me down
You go, and you leave me on the ground
In you I drown
Love, your presence burns the eyes,
Love, your leaving tells the lies, and that's why
Love, I'll never marry you.
Love, I'll never marry you.
Love, I'll never marry you.
Love, I'll never marry you.
