Think (LP Version)

Information Society

Imagine if I said I sometimes need you
I need you to this day.
Imagine if I said I sometimes hear you call my name.
Imagine if I said I still could love you.
Imagine what you'd say.
Imagine if I said I sometimes still can see your face.Think about all the things we shared.
Think about all the times we cared.
When all of your hopes have come and gone,
Think about me and I'll be there.There's something in the air that feels like winter
The kind we used to know.
Yesterday can seem like such a long, long time ago.
Who could ever count the miles between us?
But now I know it's true.
Imagine if I said that all my dreams were dreams of you.Think about all the things we shared.
Think about all the times we cared.
When all of your dreams have come and gone,
Think about me and I'll be there.
Think about images we've drawn.
Think about all those empty songs.
Whenever you're sure that I won't dare,
Think about me and I'll be gone.It took me a long, long time to learn
That love is a thing you have to earn
I finally realized it's true
I just can't make it without youThink about all the things we shared
Think about all the times we cared
When all of your dreams have come and gone
Think about me and I'll be there
Think about images we've drawn
Think about all those empty songs
Whenver you're sure that I won't dare
Think about me and I'll be gone
