Sia

You have her pictures
You have her pictures
You have her pictures
Everywhere You're covered in stitches
You're covered in stitches
You think I can't see them
But I know they're there Take her down from the wall
I just sell firewall You can't keep a frozen
Doorman at your court
You can try to move on
Tripped by stitches come undone You lost your big heart
You lost your big heart
You lost your big heart
Beating bare She gave you a new start
She gave you a new start
But you knew you'd lost her
To despair Take her down from the wall
I just sell firewall You can't keep a frozen
Doorman at your court
You can try to move on
Tripped by stitches come undone You skin burns and prickles
You skin burns and prickles
You skin burns and prickles
When she's near You try to play it cool
You try to play it cool
You try to play it cool
But you're filled with fear Take her down from the wall
I just sell firewall You can't keep a frozen
Doorman at your court
You can try to move on
Tripped by stitches come undone Take her down from the wall
Let her go make her yours You can't keep a frozen
Doorman at your court
You can try to move on
Tripped by stitches come undone You can try to move on Tripped by stitches come undone
You can try to move on
Tripped by stitches come undone You can try to move on
Or maybe she is the one
