

Holy Matrimony

Side Walk Slam

You must be the one I'm looking for
I can tell by your smile that you're the one
You're so beautiful, inside and out
Our love we share, I will never doubt
There's nothing you'd ask for, that I wouldn't do
These words are a promise that I swear to you
I love you
It's been awhile, together we stay
My love for you grows stronger everyday
You know by now that I'm always here
No time for tears, no room for fear
There's nothing you'd ask for, that I wouldn't do
These words are a promise that I swear to you
I love you
