Whole

Pedro the Lion

A hole that big I'd never seen before
In the tummy of a good ol' boy who always wanted more
Then just yesterday I saw him satisfied
It seems he'd met the hole fixin' man much to his surpriseBut are you for real, Mr. hole fixin' man?
You fixed my friend, can you fix me?
Hey Mr. hole fixin' man, I'm as broken as a boy can be
So how about fixin' meAll the charms that never were enough
It seems the hole was always twice as big
No matter what it was, but to see him now is almost to believe
That maybe Mr. hole fixin' man might have what I needBut are you for real, Mr. hole fixin' man?
You fixed my friend, can you fix me?
Hey Mr. hole fixin' man, I'm as broken as a boy can be
So how about fixin' me
