

Stay On The Grind (feat. Ohmega Watts)

Kero One

Chorus

When those bills act up, we gotta stay on the grind if these lady's act a fool, I'mma stay on the grind when those plans fall through, we gotta stay on the grind Ohmega I got your back just hit me up on my line When critics hold you back, we gotta stay on the grind when those stress levels rise, I'mma stay on the grind when those payments come late, we gotta stay on the grind Kero I got your back so hit me up anytime...Kero's verse I see stacks upon stacks in my view all day where bills attacks my desk till my desk gives way wearing so many hats that my hair's concave producer, writer, rapper, CEO of plug label with beats for days incomplete in my lab my hands tied back tryna unwrap this gift of gab making the present precious while pressure trys to impress us with deadlines to wine, dine and undress us but I wont be screwed and I refuse to lose man I use my two hands to do what few can but if I fail, then at least I made the effort I seek to make a record that speaks to reach your sector so rewind selector past the female drama skip the male testosterone, that kills our products I want to hear something that uplifts my mind spirit and soul, and motivates me to grind Chorus Ohmegas Verse
My hands hurt from driving all day Nine hour trip to the bay, next stop is LA Rocking with the CEO of the label I plug into for a fix Packed with goodness and sound bites
You can manage on a diet whether or not you eat right Large or light, now take my advice you're gonna love it when you get it I work hard nine to five + so you enjoy every minute
That you listen to or visualize one of my creations From production to design I thrive off motivation And relationship tragedies can't blow my battery Its Ohmegas' anatomy holding it down with gravity A smooth ripper on mics, hard act to follow Your chances are slimmer than winning the state lotto
My mottos follow your dreams and grind

Don't sell yourself short cause its about that timeKero One With 24 hours left in the day I feel like the works over welcomed its stay caressing my stresses, but its all worth it cause staying idle's an idol that I won't worship Ohmega watts
Nor give any affection, and lessons are blessings take stumbling blocks to build for progression instead of lying awake drifting through life I'm sifting capturing moments for good living Kero One
Which once was once a labor of love, but with dues paid, moves made, we're making that buzz full time artists... with grace from above
Ohmega watts
we travel the globe..
Kero One
to unfold that music we love..
Ohmega watts
and embrace it, a passion life long our songs paint a tapestry beautiful as the sun at dawn we're here to stay, until our final breathe slips away these dues paid our investment for future daysChorus
