

Lay Down

DMA'S

Sitting in the morning sun
Sitting in the morning sun
My thoughts, they drift away
With you Shiver in the morning rain
Shiver in the morning rain
My eyes, they drift away
With you Lay down, lay down
Give me someone new
Lay down, lay down
Give me someone new See you in the midnight hour
See you in the midnight hour
To face the crowd with you
And stay See you in the morning sun
See you in the morning sun
To face the crowd with you
I know Lay down, lay down
Give me someone new
Lay down, lay down
Give me someone new I know that it's twisting through a pain
My friend, what's that
Lost in worlds far away I know that it's twisting through a pain
My friend, what's that
Lost in worlds far away Lay down
Lost in worlds far away
Lay down
Lost in worlds far away I know that it's twisting through a pain
My friend, what's that
Lost in worlds far away
