Dissatisfied

Crucifer

Another reckless holiday
Another brain cell floats away
I've had enough
Please wake me up if I'm dreamingHalf these friends fading fast
Burning out into ash
Where you wanna go 'cuz I will follow?
What you can't stomach, I will swallowDissatisfied, dissatisfied, dissatisfiedIt's alright, alright
Don't worry, everything's gonna be alright
It's alright
Don't worry, everything's gonna be alright, alright, alrightDissatisfiedIf the best of times only last
In a second come to pass
Where you wanna go 'cuz I will follow?
What you can't stomach, I will swallowDissatisfied, dissatisfied, dissatisfiedIt's alright, alright
Don't worry, everything's gonna be alright
It's alright
Don't worry, everything's gonna be alright, alright, alrightDissatisfiedAnother reckless holiday
Another brain cell floats away
I've had enough
Please wake me up if I'm dreamingAnother never ending night
Another long and sleepless life
I've had enough
Please wake me up if I'm dreamingTwenty more days since we've been gone
And I'm so sick of twenty more nights I've spent alone
And I'm so sick of twenty more days 'til I get home
And I'm so sick of being here
