

Afraid

Tenth Avenue North

I don't wanna be afraid
I don't wanna be afraid anymore
When the world shakes
    Feel my heart race
When the voices start again
    Or the panic's creeping in
Who will I listen to
    Fear never told the truth
    So I'll wait on You tonight
Worry's only wasted time
I don't wanna be afraid anymore
    I don't wanna be afraid anymore
    Not like before
    I don't wanna be afraid
I don't wanna be afraid anymore
    I'm safe in Your love, oh, Lord
    In the future You will return
    We'll watch the darkness break
    And finally see Your face
Soon we'll forever be alive
    With Your kingdom, death will die
    This world cannot take my treasure
    This world doesn't own my tears
    My hope is alive in Heaven
I will not give in to despair
I don't wanna be afraid
    I don't wanna be afraid anymore
    I don't have to be afraid
    I don't have to be afraid anymore
    Oh, Lord
    Don't wanna be afraid
    Don't wanna be afraid, no
    I don't wanna be afraid anymore
    Don't wanna be afraid
    I don't wanna be afraid, no
    I don't have to be afraid anymore
