

Terri (Live St. Louis 1982)

UFO

Terri, every time we talk we just disagree
Every chance we had is passing by
The simple things you say all drift away into the night
So don't let me know what I can't see Terri, is it over again?
Lost in love, everybody laughing at me
With eyes like a child you smile when you hit the tide
Holding me captive for the world to see Every now and then I'd see that wild look in your eyes
It's in all the long shots that we tried
We used to hold on tight, run for the night
How far we'd go, we couldn't see Terri, is it over again?
Lost in love, everybody laughing at me
With eyes like a child you smile when you hit the tide
Holding me captive for the world to see Every day goes by we get further and further away
Conversations end with nothing much to say
Maybe we've made a mistake, it's too late we'll never know
We can't change it girl 'cause I just have to go Terri, is it over again?
Lost in love, everybody laughing at me
With eyes like a child you smile when you hit the tide
Holding me captive for the world to see On these lonely nights I reach out for your love
This empty room feels cold and bare
Then I'll try the phone and swallow my pride
It's no good we've tried and tried Terri, is it over again?
Lost in love, everybody laughing at me
With eyes like a child you smile when you hit the tide
Holding me captive for the world to see
