

No Weapon

Jahmali

I see them come up against the chosen,
I don't see nothing but Wolves in sheep clothing,

So we shall be no weapon,
Coz we nah evil no wicked man,
Lighting, thunder Inna Babylon,
Dem don't know them judgement can come any second,

There is no weapon, we can stop this Amagedeon,
So we holding Jah make we strong,
To bless up today and to see another one end,

When you don't know the repercussion,
And you just keep on doing wrong everyday where just end come,
You're not aware of the reciprocal,
Who is gonna save you from crushing on the Babylon walls when it fall,
The better you give is the best you receive,
Don't accept defeat give thanks and praises ,
Now them finally see it

I'm one of the chosen in the world,
Jah turn deep into a shallow place,
And shallow days for the elect sake,
No them still believe and have no faith,
But I'm always thankful for jah landing my days
