

Do You Good

Morcheeba

All alone now, you look down, I got that feeling
Don't fear 'cause I'm gonna help you feel free
I seen you sitting round heavy frown won't stop drinking boy
Wipe your tears and lay it all out for me I heal broken hearts
Let me take you in my arms My love will do you good
My love will do you good
My love will do you good
My love will do you good Not alone now, just feel how I work my healing
Look here, gonna show you how it can be
I see you're coming round, gaining ground, no more sinking boy
And no more tears in the new world I guarantee I heal broken hearts
Let me take you in my arms My love will do you good
My love will do you good
My love will do you good
My love will do you good Feeling lonely
Feeling numb
Turn your face into the sun
Your new start has just begun Feel scared
We'll take it slow
Set it loose and let it flow
Deeper than you'll ever know My love will do you good
My love will do you good
My love will do you good
My love will do you good My love will do you good
My love will do you good
My love will do you good
My love will do you good
