

Drunk On Your Love

Brett Eldredge

The second she walked through the door, I caught a buzz
One taste from your lips knocked me out just like a drug

 The rest of the night's kind of blurry

 Now the sun's peeking through the shades

I can't help but laugh 'cause I kind of like feeling this wayI woke up, up still drunk, drunk

 On your love, love, on your love, love, love

 Now I know whyy I'm feeling so high, high

'Cause I'm still drunk, drunk on your love, on your love, oh yeahIt's not in the whiskey, tequila or the wine

 It's all about the touch and the fire in your eyes

 It gets me fumbling always stumbling through a haze

I got plenty to do just laying here with you all dayI woke up, up still drunk, drunk

 On your love, love, on your love, love, love

 Now I know whyy I'm feeling so high, high

'Cause I'm still drunk, drunk on your love, on your love, ohWish I could bottle you up and drink you in all day long

 Every day singing this songI woke up, up still drunk, drunk

 On your love, love, on your love, love, love

 Now I know whyy I'm feeling so high, high

'Cause I'm still drunk, drunk on your love, on your love(Woke up still drunk on your love)

 On your love, on your love

 On your love

 On your love, on your love

 On your love, get drunk on your love, yeah

 I'm so drunk
