

What I Really Meant to Say

Cyndi Thomson

It took me by surprise
When I saw you standin' there
    Close enough to touch
    Breathin' the same air
You asked me how I've been
    I guess that's when I smiled
        And said, just fine
Oh but baby I was lyin'What I really meant to say
    Is I'm dyin' here inside
    And I miss you more each day
There's not a night I haven't cried
    And baby here's the truth
    I'm still in love with you, yeah
That's what I really meant to sayAnd as you walked away
    The echo of my words
    Cut just like a knife
    Cut so deep it hurt
    I held back the tears
    Held on to my pride
    And watched you go
I wonder if you'll ever knowWhat I really meant to say
    Is I'm dyin' here inside
    And I miss you more each day
There's not a night I haven't cried
    And baby here's the truth
    I'm still in love with youWhat I really meant to say
    Is I'm really not that strong
        No matter how I try
        I'm still holdin' on
        And here's the honest truth
    I'm still in love with you, yeah
That's what I really meant to sayThat's what I really meant to say
    That's what I really meant to say
