

Shoulda Put Something On

N-dubz

E Yeaa

Ooh Wooooeee

Listen To What I Have To Tell Ya (Na na niiaiii)

You know we aint cool one another

You don't deserve to decide when im gonna be a papa (Never)

However much i hate you, think im gonna sit around and watch little one suffer (NO)

I aint gunna lie im always behind when you get on all four's

But when your belly popped out you said it was my fault, you told me, (I shoulda put something on)

You werent sayin shit wen i was gripping on ur pelvis now your try to act up saying that im selfish na na i aint ready for no pickney i cant help it and its too late 2 say i shud of worn a helmet

I would loved to be the perfect dad

I would love to give my kids everything i never had (str8)

all im saying is now aint the time so if u dont wanna listen its best i just leave

Chorus

Who do you think you are i aint gettin rid of shit

this is a part of me dont blame me, u shoulda put something on, (but im jus a man, you know how we are, i dont wanna be involved its not my fault)

its like your only thinkin about urself, its just you you and no1 else, take responsibility, you shoulda put something on, so who do you think u are i aint getin rid of shit, we both did this, dont blame me, you shoulda put something on

Something let me tell you about something, recongnes cant tel me nothin not one thing boy u got my blood pumpin, im ragin at you, u got me so damn angry, ur selfish and ruthless those useless excuses mean nothing 2 me, this child is a part of me, you cant begin to understand someone is living and growing inside, but your just a man, you dont understand, get outa my get outa my get outa my face my face my face.

Chorus

Who do you think you are i aint gettin rid of shit

this is a part of me dont blame me, u shoulda put something on, (but im jus a man, you know how we are, i dont
wanna be involved its not my fault)

its like your only thinkin about urself, just do you you and no1 else, just take responsibility, cause you shoulda put something on, so who do you think u are i aint getin rid of shit, we did this, dont blame me you shoulda put something on

I feel for you but u knew the deal (you was lying wen u said u was on the pill)

I have to be real with you I think we both know that the both of us aint got much doe Im afraid i cant be involved, Its jus the same old selfishnes with you Dont pretend your understanding Its a little too late to act confused Cause i know what im gonna do do do do do

Chorus

Who do you think you are i aint gettin rid of shit
this is a part of me dont blame me, u shoul da put something on, (but im jus a man, you know how we are, i dont
wanna be involved its not my fault)
its like your only thinkin about urself, just do you you and no1 else, just take responsability, cause you shoul da put something on, so who do you think u are i aint getin rid of shit, we both did this , dont blame me you
