

Taken

Josh Tatofi

Here's a little story of a young man
Who came across a woman takin' all attention
There he fell in love with this beautiful girlie
He spent a lot of time tryna get to know her
Doing anything and everything just to please her
He was so in love so in love

Then there came the day that she finally told him
That another man already had her heart:
Her first love. Now he's heartbroken,
Wondering how he couldn't see it

Chorus:

How does it feel to be in love with someone that's taken
How does it feel to be in love with no one, hey
How does it feel to be in love with someone that's taken
How does it feel to be in love with no one

She said she didn't lead him on and he took it wrong
That they only wanted to be friends all along
But he thought different he thought different
So he started to explain that this was no game
And the way she kept him runnin' made him drown in shame
How did she do this? How could she do this?

She apologized, he said, "Are you serious?
Do you know what you have caught?
There's so many men that could give the world
But girls like you put them on call, yeah

Chorus:

How does it feel to be in love with someone that's taken
How does it feel to be in love with no one, hey
How does it feel to be in love with someone that's taken
How does it feel to be in love with no one

I'm not here to judge, got nothing but love
Just tryna send a message that could help someone
This my opinion is my opinion
'Cause when you give one that heart of yours

You wanna make sure that their love is pure

That's what I'm sayin' what I'm sayin'

It's the worst feeling when you give it all

And your time with her comes unnoticed

Falling deep in love with someone who played it all

But started back at nothing, yeah

Chorus:

How does it feel to be in love with someone that's taken

How does it feel to be in love with no one, hey

How does it feel to be in love with someone that's taken

How does it feel to be in love with no one
