Hold Me Now

Red

Fall asleep to dreams of home
Where the waves are crashing
The only place Ive ever known
Now the future has me
I see fire in the sky
See it all around me
I said the past was dead, the life I had is gone
Said I wont give up until I see the sunHold me now till the fear is leaving
I am barely breathingWaking up and letting go
To the sound of angels
Am I alive or just a ghost
Haunted by my sorrows
Hope is slipping through my hands
Gravity is taking hold
I said I am not afraid, that I am brave enough
I will not give up until I see the sunHold me now till the fear is leaving
I am barely breathing
Crying out, these tired wing are falling
I need you to catch meAs I burn, as I break
I cant take it anymore
I return to the place where
The water covers over everything
Rescue me somehow
