KMFDM

You're so wonderful
Apple of everyone's eye
You're so clever
Multimillion-dollar smileThe world is your oyster
And pearls are fun
Share them with everyone
That you love
And you love everyone always
All of the timeMissing link
You eat your own dear
Bird of prey
You can't control
In your world of perceptionHazy
Hazy
Hazy
HazyConnection precise
Cave in
Bow to the other sideYou're a superhero demigod
No one, anywhere, anytime, any which way but you
If the mirror speaks the truth
We must aspire and work harder to be like you
'Cause anything goes when you're a star
Anything goes when you're a starRegal elegant
You are bewitching and wild
Fifteen minutes a lifetime
They just don't applyShudder to think
It could ever be true
That anyone else
Is as lovely as you
You bear the name
And the lineage that we desireYou're a superhero demigod
No one, anywhere, anytime, any which way but you
If the mirror speaks the truth
We must aspire and work harder to be like you
'Cause anything goes when you're a star
Anything goes when you're a star
When you're a starYou're a superhero demigod
You're a superhero demigodHazy
Hazy

You look fabulous
With your made-to-order
Plastic mask
You look so divineYou're a superhero demigod
No one, anywhere, anytime, any which way but you
If the mirror speaks the truth
We must aspire and work harder to be like you
'Cause anything goes when you're a star
Anything goes when you're a starYou look so divine
You're a superhero demigod
You look so divine
You're a superhero demigod
