

Valleys of Neptune

Jimi Hendrix

Yeah!

Lord, I feel the ocean swaying me

Washing away all my pain

See where I used to be wounded

Remember the scars, now you can't see a thing

And I don't feel no pain oh no

Hey!

Singing about the Valley of Sunrise

Green and blue canyons too

I'm singing about Atlantis love songs

Valleys of Neptune is rising, rising, rising Mercury liquid and emeralds shining

They're showing me where I came from baby

Honey sun turquoise bed he lays on

On the burning edge horizon

I'm sailing on a bluebird's mission

Bubble and curls and tiptoes in the foam

See the wind make love to all the ocean

And the waves spread the message got home

And the message got home

Hey yeah!

I'm singing about Atlantis love songs

Egypt moon trips flying flying

Playing about the valleys of autumn

Valleys of Neptune is rising rising

Valleys of Neptune is rising rising Valleys of Neptune guitar - rock on baby rock, oo oo oo, ri-i-ise, rise baby now Lookout East coast, you're going to have a neighbor

Rebirth land home of the praying sands

We know there were three continents so much older

And they shall rise and tell us much more the truth of man

I see visions of sleeping peaks erupting

Releasing all hell that will shake the Earth from end to end

And this ain't good news, bad news, or any news

It's just the truth

Better save your souls while you can
