

Johnny Borrell Afterlife

Future of the Left

under the milkfloat gravity objects positive breakthrough and now where's my hovercraft?
nikola tesla
father of the brain
a terrible dresser, that man pause at the shop to restock on virgin's blood black or white it's all hemoglobin roy, just a boy just a boy with the biggest head in school
just a boy just a boy with the brightest future
over the weekend everybody died something infectious but yet something wonderful bobby zamora
i saw him on the bus making his eyelids aggrieved buzz on the beans with the label clear as mud got a friend and a new placenta
suit yourself there's nothing like a military coup
the clothes are great and everybody loves a curfew
scarred for life by chisels on the cherry chopping chest it let me down it made me up it left me compressed i flew business class i drank too much i can't remember but if her heart won't start i won't get home until september

just a boy with the brightest
just a boy with the widest wingspan just a boy with a Cancun boarding pass just a boy just a piece of work
