

Been Insane

John Frusciante

I've been insane, well, the time is slow
The pope don't matter when the pawn is your sea
Don't you agree? When you're around I'm wound around your thumb
You wanna be numb inside the gun
I've been in pain, hope it doesn't show
I've been insane, well, the time is slow Don't you want sunshine instead of phony lights
All your billboards in light?
I want big fight against the baby inside
That you're mistaking for pain
