

Heroine (Album Version)

From First to Last

Mother, is it hard to recognize me now?

Mother, why can't you recognize me now?

I've sent my letters "Everything's fine" but I liedLittle boy little man

I've lost my name

Heroine oh heroine

Where have you been when I've needed you?Little boy now little man

I've lost my name

Heroine oh heroine

Where have you been when I needed you?
