Think It Over

Sweet California

y comenta.
Wasn't it you who used to buy me roses? A promise so true we'd stand the test of time
But you didn't seem like the kind that would throw it all away
Now I just can't believe the stories you're telling me now
Are you for real?You can only push me so far
Hurry boy, the door is closing
I'll be gone
I'm tired of being broken hearted
You deny, but you're taking me for granted all the timeNeed a minute just to think it over x2Wasn't it I who tried to keep it all together?
Hard as I tried, It wasn't going anywhere
But I'm tryin' to get my head around, are you asking me to stay?
What are you fighting for?
Cuz I'm thinking you don't know me anymoreYou can only push me so far
Hurry boy, the door is closing
I'll be gone
I'm tired of being broken hearted
You deny, but you're taking me for granted all the timeNeed a minute just to think it over x2Over... I never said it would be easy
Over... But I'm doing what's best for meYou can only push me so far
Hurry boy, the door is closing
I'll be gone
I'm tired of being broken hearted
You deny, but you're taking me for granted all the timeNeed a minute just to think it over x2
