

Hear Me Now

Framing Hanley

Well I swear to you and God we've been down this road before
The guilt's no good, and it only shames us more
And the truths that we all try to hide are so much clearer when it's not our lives
We don't face the blame

Won't you (GET ON YOUR KNEES!!!)

Believe (HAVE FAITH!!!)

In this lie with us all

Now my body's on the floor, and I am calling, well I'm calling out to you... Can you hear me now?

Well it's not rebellion when your selling out to an out of fashion salesman
Our promising lives are full of empty promises
Temptations falling and calling you home again
Well I'm sorry if we've let you down

Won't you (GET ON YOUR KNEES!!!)

Believe (HAVE FAITH!!!)

In this lie with us all

Now my body's on the floor and I am calling, well I'm calling out to you... Can you hear me now?
Now my body's on the floor and I am crawling, well I'm crawling out to you... Can you feel me now?

What's wrong?! What's wrong?! What's wrong?! (x4)

Now my body's on the floor and I am calling, well I'm calling out to you
(CAN YOU HEAR ME NOW?!?!?)

Now my body's on the floor and I am calling (x2)

Now my body's on the floor and I am calling, well I'm calling out to you
