

Tiny Waist

Eleni Mandell

If you don't kiss me now
All our time will run out
We can be so close
And yet our lips have never touchedWhen we danced at my place
You said, "Such a tiny waist"
All the better to embrace with you
Is that enough?I know we can move so slowly
It's impossible to comprehend
Turn up the band
And let's get down againIf you don't kiss me now
We may never reach the sun
We can laugh and sing
All summer long but winter's bound to comeI was balanced on a chair
You said, "Why you over there?"
So I fell into the space with you
Was I wrong?I know we can move so slowly
It's impossible to comprehend
Turn up the band
And let's get down againI know we can move so slowly
It's impossible to comprehend
Turn up the band
And let's get down again
