SAY SAY SAY

Annalise

You, gave me your guidance
Gave me your kindness
Sympathy and honesty, yeah you
And your compassion
Gave me the reason
Because of you I can be this strong
Simple things that matter
Your friendship brings
So I sing
Say say say, in your own sweet way
Hey hey hey, it'll be okay
I trust in your word
Cos when you say say say, in your own sweet way
Hey hey hey, it'll be okay
I trust in your word, you bring me back to earth
I'm, loyal in answer
Honored and grateful
For everything you're showing me, cos you
Carefully guided
Deep in your empathy
Because of you I'm flying here with pride
And simple things that matter
Your friendship brings
So I sing
Say say say, in your own sweet way
Hey hey hey, it'll be okay

I trust in your word
Cos when you say say say, in your own sweet way
Hey hey hey, it'll be okay
I trust in your word, you bring me back to earth
You, gave me your guidance
Gave me your kindness
Sympathy and honesty, yeah you
And your compassion
Gave me the reason
Because of you I can be this strong
Simple things that matter
Your friendship brings

So I sing
Say say say, in your own sweet way
Hey hey hey, it'll be okay
I trust in your word
Cos when you say say say, in your own sweet way
Hey hey hey, it'll be okay
I trust in your word, you bring me back to earth
I trust in your word
I trust in your word, you bring me back to earth
You bring me back to earth
